

CV of Ursula Stüdi

Since 2008 I'm working as a scientific officer for the BAG (Swiss Federal Office of Public Health). I'm responsible for the field of Gender Health. Before that I had a mandate at Odasanté, the national umbrella organisation of leading associations of employer organizations. I was responsible for the realization of a survey on practical terms of education of health professions in Switzerland. I studied sociology and psychology in Bern.